Graceful Stockholm, Sweden

Colorful Bergen, Norway

This is the perfect time to be in Scandinavia. The temperatures are pleasant and the valleys are green and lush. We hope you can join us!

Astonishing Scandinavia

Among all of the countries in Europe, Norway is the most scenic (in my opinion). I love the other alpine countries like Switzerland, Austria and Bavaria, but there is something completely unique about Norway. One major difference is the abundance of WATER which we see in gushing waterfalls, dramatic fjords and rugged coastline. Add the green valleys, sheer cliffs and wide open landscapes and you have a MUST-SEE destination. But that's not all. We'll see Copenhagen, rural Denmark, interior Sweden and end with two nights in Stockholm. It will be an unforgettable journey that we promise you'll enjoy.

Because of its beauty, it isn't cheap to travel in Scandinavia. We have included what we think you must see. We could have saved several hundred dollars by cutting out Geiranger Fjord – but what a shame that would be as it is one of Norway's most dramatic and beautiful fjords. We promise you that it is worth the investment. So read on. We think you'll like what you see. We look forward to hosting you to beautiful SCANDINAVIA!

Daily Itinerary

August 6, 2011: Today we board our flight for lovely Copenhagen, Denmark, arriving the following morning.

August 7: Upon arrival, we'll transfer to our hotel for a brief rest. During the afternoon, we'll take a stroll through the heart of the city with a visit to the Church of our Lady which is home to the original Christus Statue by Torvaldsen. We'll stop at the nearby "Round Tower" built by King Christian IV in 1637. The views from the top are stunning. We will meet our local tour manager this evening.

August 8: After breakfast this morning, we enjoy a guided sightseeing tour of Copenhagen which reveals impressive sights such as the renaissance Stock Exchange, Christiansborg Palace and the Little Mermaid – the statue inspired by Hans Christian Andersen's fairytale. We'll also have a guided tour of the Amalienborg Palace with its elegant 18th century architecture. In the afternoon, you'll have some time to relax or take an optional tour. Perhaps you'll want to visit Tivoli Gardens, Copenhagen's famous entertainment/amusement park. (Breakfast)

August 9: After breakfast this morning, we head west and cross the bridge to the Island of Funen and the town of Odense, Hans Christian Andersen's birthplace. The peaceful rural setting is typical of the Danish countryside. We'll enjoy lunch in town. From here we will cross to the Jutland Peninsula en route to Aalborg, a charming mixture of old and new, for dinner and overnight stay. (Scandinavian breakfast / Dinner)

August 10: We'll get an early start today as we head to Hirsthals, at the north end of the peninsula where we board our ship to cross the Skagerrak to the port of Kristiansand in Norway. After we disembark we join our coach and drive via Mandal and Flekkefjord to Stavanger, one of Norway's oldest towns. (Scandinavian breakfast / Dinner)

August 11: After breakfast we enjoy an amazing journey today as we island-hop from Stavanger to the capital of the Fjords, Bergen. On this coastal highway we cruise fjords and pass islands on this spectacular coastline. We enjoy a scenic ferry ride from Mortavika to Arsvagen, then from Sandvikvag to Halhjem. In the early afternoon, we arrive in beautiful Bergen, flanked by fjords and enjoying a spectacular natural setting. We'll enjoy an orientation tour upon arrival. We will enjoy views of the 13th century Haakons Hall and stroll through the bustling fish market. (Scandinavian breakfast)

August 12: We spend the day in Bergen today. We have included a cable car trip up Mt. Floven, Bergen's highest elevation, affording breathtaking views of the city and the surrounding fjord region. Later today, you'll have some free time to enjoy Bergen as you wish. You can visit the picturesque home of Norway's most famous composer, Edvard Grieg, with its underground symphony hall, or just enjoy some browsing in the fascinating waterfront town. (Scandinavian breakfast)

August 13: Today we continue living in postcards. The beauty that we'll enjoy today cannot be explained on paper. We will first travel to the ski resort of Voss where we take a train for a journey that will take us 3,000 feet above sea level. We'll have time at the top to admire the scenery before taking the famous Flam railway – one of the most exciting railway journeys in the world! We will enjoy spectacular views of mountains and waterfalls before crossing over the deep and magnificent waters of Sognefjord to our hotel in scenic Leikanger. Believe me, you will pinch yourself as you gaze at this unbelievable scene. (Scandinavian breakfast / Dinner)

August 14: Today we continue our journey to the north in this incredible fjordland. Our morning drive will take us along the spectacular Sognefjord, the longest in all of Norway. We continue onwards through breathtaking glacier country. In the afternoon, we begin to see views of Geirangerfjord as we descend to the picturesque little town of Geiranger. (Scandinavian breakfast / Dinner)

August 15: We have a full day to enjoy the dramatic scenery of this area. Our coach will take us on a steep climb to the Eagles' Road for amazing views of the Geiranger Fjord. Then onward to the 'path of the trolls' - Trollstigen, considered a masterpiece of engineering. This is Norwegian rugged mountain scenery at its finest. The combination of mountains and fjords and waterfalls makes these some of the greatest views in all of Norway – and thus, all of Europe! We then return to our same hotel in Geiranger. (Scandinavian breakfast / Dinner)

August 16: Today the breathtaking views continue as we drive out of Geiranger. Then along Ottadalen we stop to visit the traditional Stave Church at Lom. A Stave Church represents the intersection between the Viking religions and Christianity and they are a site to see. From here we continue through the fertile Gudbrandsdal Valley, inspiration for Ibsen's 'Peer Gynt', and into Lillehammer, home of the 1994 Winter Olympics. We'll spend the night here. Before dinner at the hotel you'll have the option to visit the open-air museum at Maihaugan (Scandinavian breakfast / Dinner)

August 17: Our first highlight this morning is the lakeside Hamar. Here we view the unusual ice rink built for the Olympics before making our way to Norway's capital, Oslo. On our arrival a guided sightseeing tour highlights the medieval fortress of Akershus, the Royal Palace and a visit to the Vigeland Sculpture Park. This afternoon, you'll have the option to visit the Viking Museum in Oslo where you can see the Kon-Tiki raft and some very old Viking ships that have been preserved. (Scandinavian breakfast)

August 18: Today we travel across the border into Sweden. The countryside is delightful with thick woods and rolling hills. We continue via Karlstad on beautiful Lake Vänern, past the city of Orebro and into the island-ringed capital, Stockholm for our two-night stay. Stockholm is set on 14 islands and enjoys a unique setting for a European capital. Before going to the hotel, we'll show you a "Hidden Treasure" in this city of contrasts. (Scandinavian breakfast)

August 19: The charms of this city are revealed on our morning sightseeing tour with a local guide. We'll see the medieval Storkyrkan, Riddarholm church, the Royal Palace, plus a visit to the waterside City Hall where the Nobel Prize banquets are held. After lunch, we have included entrance into the famous Vasa Museum showcasing the oldest fully preserved war ship in the world. It sunk outside of Stockholm in the 1600's and was discovered about 50 years ago in a fully preserved state. It is a fascinating look into life in the 17th century. Tonight, we enjoy a farewell dinner together. (Scandinavian breakfast / Farewell dinner)

August 20: Today we transfer to the airport for flights home. You will have seen one of the world's great travel destinations.

This tour is organized by Webb Tours based on many trips to the region. The hotels, transportation and local guides are provided by Trafalgar Tours, Europe. That is the case because they have excellent hotels at reasonable prices. Their local Tour Manager will provide interesting information as we travel to enhance your experience. A Webb Tours director will accompany the group if demand warrants (20 or more passengers). See you in August!

Cancellation Insurance:

To avoid cancellation penalties, cancellation insurance may be purchased. Insurance will reimburse you for the non-refundable cancellation penalties imposed if you must cancel your trip for a covered reason like illness, injury or death to you, a traveling companion or an immediate family member. Other reasons for cancellation include Common Carrier-caused delays due to inclement weather, jury duty, or a documented traffic accident en route to departure.

However, insurance may be purchased any time up to the point you make your final payment. Insurance cannot be purchased after your final payment is made. Webb Tours is not the insurer and acts as agent for the insurance company. To activate your insurance, we need your premium and your birth date. Travel insurance also includes $2,500 for baggage loss, $500 for baggage delay, up to $50,000 for medical expenses and up to $50,000 for medical evacuation.

Currency Fluctuation:

Webb Tours reserves the right to adjust the rates if necessary in order to reflect currency fluctuations larger than 10% from those used in our tour price. This is not likely to happen, but we must protect against it. A shift of that magnitude would quickly erase our tour profits. Of course, if the fluctuation moves in the opposite direction, we will reduce your tour price.
