Nauvoo Temple

It's the perfect combination: Church History and Autumn Colors! Temperatures are pleasant, fall is in the air and the summer crowds are gone. There isn't a better time to visit the region. This brochure describes TWO DIFFERENT TOUR OPTIONS.

Option #1 (recommended): October 8-20 - Fly to Boston and home from Kansas City. This is for those who want to see it all including Boston, Sharon, Palmyra, Niagara Falls, Kirtland, Nauvoo and Missouri sites.

Option #2: October 8-16 - Fly to Boston and home from Kirtland (Cleveland). This is for those who want to focus on church history sites in the east (Sharon, Palmyra, Kirtland). It is for those who may have been to Nauvoo or prefer a shorter tour (see insert for prices).

Registration Information:

To make a reservation, simply fill out the attached reservation form and send it to us with a deposit of $300 per person. When we receive your deposit, we will mail you a receipt confirming that you are registered for the tour. A letter with instructions, hotel itinerary flight information (if applicable) and luggage tags will be sent 45-60 days prior to departure at which time the balance will be due. You do not need to pay the balance until after you receive that packet. We require final payments in the form of a check. If that is not possible, arrangements can be made to use a credit card. Webb Tours accepts Visa, Mastercard and Discover.

Cancellation Penalties

We understand that you may need to cancel your trip for whatever reason. If it is 60 days or more before departure, all money will be refunded. If it is within 60 days, we will charge you only what Webb Tours cannot recover. In some cases, we can recover all of it. In others, we cannot. Cruise lines, airlines, hotels and other service providers require funds in advance and have their own rules about what will be refunded once paid. We must follow their guidelines. For airlines, specifically, tickets are generally non refundable when purchased. However, most airlines will allow the value of the canceled tickets to be reused for future travel, though a penalty may be assessed to reuse the tickets. If you have to cancel, Webb Tours will work with other providers to obtain as much refund as possible for our travelers. Our travelers know us to be very fair in this regard.

Cancellation Insurance:

Cancellation insurance is also available should you be interested. The insurance provider that we use is a company called Travelex. You can learn about them at www.travelexinsurance.com. With this insurance, most of your money will be returned to you in case you have to cancel for covered reasons (illness or death of an immediate family member) at the last minute. The price for the insurance varies based on the price of the trip and the age of the participant (at the time the insurance is purchased). Prices are listed below.

If you are interested in the insurance, it is best to purchase it when your deposit is made as all preexisting conditions are waived. However, insurance may be purchased any time up to the point you make your final payment. Insurance cannot be purchased after your final payment is made. Webb Tours is not the insurer and acts as agent for Travelex. To activate your insurance, we need your premium and your birth date. Insurance also includes $50,000 in medical benefits, $1,000 for lost baggage, $250 for baggage delay and $50,000 for Common Carrier AD&D.

Fall Church History Spectacular October 8-20, 2012

Once again, Webb Tours is excited to offer this inspirational, scenic and historical tour which traces church history from the east coast to the Midwest. Here is a sampling from last year's participants:

I had no idea what to expect as this was my first tour. This experience surpassed anything I could have hoped for. I really can't think of anything you missed. Karen's knowledge of church history and her excitement to share it has left a lasting impression" G. Squires

"Thanks for helping us fulfill a life-long dream. These were places we always wanted to see. To see them with a great director and like-minded people made it that much better. Thanks for your genuine efforts to please us." K Hansen

"Karen Lesser is the perfect tour director. Her knowledge, personality and spirit added immensely to our tour. Everything was so enjoyable." S. Adams

"We watched quietly as Karen consistently went out of her way to do special things for people. She is so thoughtful, and we loved her enthusiasm as she taught us. F. Winslow

As you'll note, the tour visits virtually all of the critical church history sites, but at a relaxed pace. In fact we stay for two consecutive nights in Boston, Palmyra, Kirtland and Nauvoo. That means we have plenty of time to enjoy those areas thoroughly and we aren't constantly on the move. AND WE ENJOY TWO FABULOUS DAYS IN THE HEART OF NEW ENGLAND DURING AUTUMN FOLIAGE. This tour is directed by Karen Lesser who has directed the tour many times. Karen has taught church history for many years and has directed multiple groups to all of these sites. You won't find a person with her unique skills. She is unanimously loved by all those who travel with her.

Daily Itinerary

October 8: Salt Lake to Boston: Today we'll get an early start as we board our flight to Boston, Mass, arriving about 6:00 local time. Our luxury touring coach will be waiting for us. We'll go directly to dinner at famous No Name Restaurant on Fish Pier. This will be a great start to our tour. Our hotel is in a nearby Boston suburb. Tour to pay for dinner today.

October 9: Boston all day. No city in the United States has more history than Boston, and we'll spend the day taking it in with our knowledgeable and entertaining local guide. We'll see Lexington and Concord where the Revolutionary War began. The setting is spectacular any time, but especially in the fall! The first two weeks of October is PEAK time for fall foliage in New England. We'll also see the Old North Church, USS Constitution, Paul Revere's home, and much more. We'll enjoy a unique lunch and browsing experience at Quincy Market, near the old Fannuel Hall. We'll stay in the Boston area again tonight. Tour to pay for city tour and breakfast today.

October 10: Boston to Gorham, New Hampshire: This morning we'll drive about 30 minutes to the northeast and make an interesting stop in the town of Topsfield where Joseph Smith's ancestors settled. They lived on the same homestead from the 1660's (Robert Smith) to the early 1800's (Joseph Smith Sr.). There is a plaque commemorating five generations of Smiths that lived here and worshiped in the Congregational Church. We then continue to our lunch stop in beautiful Kennebunkport, Maine on the Atlantic Ocean. The town is beautiful and charming and you'll have some time to enjoy it. Our afternoon drive takes us through the lakes and forests of southern Maine into southern New Hampshire where we should be enjoying fabulous fall scenes as this is the time for peak foliage in southern New Hampshire. Our hotel is not far from beautiful Lake Winnepesaukee. Tour to pay for breakfast and dinner.

October 11: New Hampshire to Sharon to Green Mountains. This morning, weather permitting, we'll enjoy an hour boat ride on scenic Lake Winnepesaukee. If Mother Nature is kind to us, the fall scenes will be spectacular. We then enjoy a 2 hour ride through rural New Hampshire into Vermont, arriving by lunchtime in Sharon, where we'll visit Joseph Smith's birthplace. The setting is stunning this time of year. We'll have plenty of time to see the Visitor's Center and monument. The Young Women have prepared a lunch for us that we'll enjoy in the pavilion perched on a hill overlooking the spectacular fall scene. It is miles of colorful maple trees as far as the eye can see in all directions and it is stunning! Afterwards, we'll visit the Maple Syrup Museum for Vermont gifts and an interesting demonstration on the process of making maple syrup. Our hotel is in Clifton Park, New York. Tour to pay for breakfast and box lunch today.

October 12: Clifton Park to Palmyra. This morning, we'll take a slight detour to the south to see the Aaronic Priesthood Memorial (among other things) on the Susquehanna River near what used to be Harmony, Pennsylvania. It is a peaceful setting and an important stop on our trip. We'll then cross into upstate New York and head for Palmyra. Upstate New York is covered with trees and the drive is lovely this time of year. We'll arrive in Fayette at about 4:00 and visit the Peter Whitmer Farm where the church was organized and much of the Book of Mormon translated. Our hotel tonight is the Inn on the Lake or Palmyra Inn (both are lovely). We'll be here two nights. Dinner is included at the hotel tonight. Those interested can attend a session in the Palmyra Temple tonight (you must bring your own clothing). Tour to pay for breakfast & dinner.

October 13: Palmyra area: After breakfast this morning, we'll continue to visit the historical sites of interest in the area. We'll begin with the Sacred Grove, the newly restored Smith cabin and the frame home. You're used to seeing this area with green foliage, wait until you see it with fall color (if nature cooperates)! We'll see the recently refurbished Hill Cumorah Visitors Center and go to the top of the Hill Cumorah. At 3:00, we'll visit the Grandin Press (where the first copies of the Book of Mormon were printed). You'll have a free evening tonight. Tour to pay for breakfast.

October 14: Palmyra via Niagara Falls to Kirtland: We'll get an early start today (8:00 departure) as we head for Niagara Falls, arriving on the New York side at 10:00. We have included a ride on the exciting Maid of the Mist which takes us to the face of the world's most impressive waterfall. We'll then have about 90 minutes for lunch, falls viewing and relaxing in the lovely park. After lunch, we'll drive along Lake Erie toward Kirtland, Ohio where we'll arrive about 5:00. We'll stay in the Kirtland area tonight in the delightful Lawnfield Inn & Suites, a favorite for our travelers. Tour to pay for breakfast and Maid of the Mist today.

October 15: Kirtland all day: There is much to see in Kirtland as much has been recently restored. We'll start at the Visitors Center built in the form of a 19th Century grist mill. The town streets have been rerouted creating a pedestrian area from which to enjoy all of the sites. We will also enjoy a guided tour of the Kirtland Temple, the Newell K Whitney Store, the Isaac Morley Farm, and the newly restored Johnson Inn. Kirtland is a quaint town, covered in trees and foliage. Again, this time of year offers autumn beauty which will enhance your historical experience. After a rest, we'll visit the John Johnson Farm where we'll review the important history that happened here. This evening we visit an authentic Amish Community where we'll enjoy dinner with an Amish family at their farm. It is one of the tour highlights. We'll stay in the Kirtland area again tonight. Tour to pay for breakfast and unforgettable dinner.

October 16: Kirtland to Macomb: Those departing today will be transported to the Cleveland Airport. For the others, we'll continue toward Nauvoo the Beautiful. We'll relax, watch a DVD, enjoy some teaching, read a book, etc. We'll make sure the time is well spent, but we'll give you time to relax and do your own thing as well. We'll stay in Macomb tonight. Tour to pay for breakfast and dinner.

October 17: Macomb to Carthage to Nauvoo. We're just an hour from Carthage Jail. We'll be there by 9:30 to review events that led to the Martyrdom. We'll go over to Nauvoo for lunch. We'll check into the Nauvoo Family Inn & Suites (just up the street from the temple) for a brief rest. This afternoon, we'll see the Visitors Center and enjoy an orientation tour of Old Nauvoo, including a chance to stroll down Parley Street reading the poignant signs as we walk toward the river. Dinner is included today at our hotel. We'll stay for two nights in the Nauvoo area. Tour to pay for breakfast and dinner today.

October 18: Nauvoo all day: Those who are interested can attend a morning session at the newly dedicated Nauvoo Temple! It's a treat you'll never forget. After changing clothes, we'll continue to see Nauvoo. We'll begin at the Community of Christ Visitors Center with a chance to see the Mansion House, Homestead and Smith Family Cemetery. After lunch, you'll have the rest of the day to see the sites that are of most interest to you. Dinner is included tonight at Hotel Nauvoo (famous buffet). Those interested can see the play at the Cultural Hall. Others can relax this evening. Tour to pay for breakfast and dinner today.

October 19: Nauvoo to Independence. We'll get an early start today as we travel west toward Jackson County. We'll then visit Adam-Ondi-Ahman, a place of great historical and future significance. A short drive from there are the remains of Far West, a once bustling city with thousands of inhabitants. If time permits, we'll visit Richmond and see the monument to the Three Witnesses and other interesting things. We'll then continue toward Independence where we'll spend the evening. Tour to pay for breakfast and dinner.

October 20: Independence to Salt Lake: This morning we'll visit the LDS Visitor's Center which was recently completely revamped. We'll also see the temple lot, as well as other highlights in the area. After lunch, we'll visit Liberty Jail. Known as the prison-temple, The Prophet was incarcerated here for 4 1/2 months. It is one of the most profound places we'll visit, and a fitting place to end our tour. The Kansas City Airport is just 20 minutes from there. Tour to pay for breakfast.

Autumn Reflections

Boston to Kirtland

October 8-16, 2012

For those who have been to Nauvoo recently, or would like a shorter tour, we offer a 9 day tour which focuses on church history sites in the east (Sharon, Palmyra, Kirtland). If you choose this option, you would depart with the group on October 8th from Salt Lake City, and return on the morning of October 16th after visiting all sites in Kirtland.
