This tour focuses on the LDS temples in South Central US. You'll be able to attend sessions in the Oklahoma City, Dallas, San Antonio, Houston, Baton Rouge, Birmingham and Atlanta Temples. In addition, we will enjoy interesting scenery, 2 nights in both New Orleans and San Antonio and some very unique activities along the way. It's a fun getaway. Space is limited to 40 people.

Each year, Webb Tours sponsors tours that focus on visits to the LDS temples while enjoying other sites in the region. In May, 2012 we will offer our South Central Temple Tour, enjoying the unique landscapes and activities in Texas, Louisiana, Alabama and Georgia. We'll enjoy two nights each in New Orleans and San Antonio. This is a great time to be in these areas. All of the temples are open and waiting for our visit. So come and join us for the INSPIRATION and BEAUTY of our South Central Temple Tour!

Daily Itinerary:

May 14: Today we depart by from the Salt Lake Airport for our flight to Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, arriving in the afternoon. We'll board our coach and make our way into town where we'll spend an hour or so at the Oklahoma City National Memorial commemorating the bombing of the Murrah Building in 1995. It is the number one visitor attraction in Oklahoma City and well worth a stop (admission included). We'll then check into our hotel and enjoy dinner together. D

May 15: This morning after breakfast at the hotel we'll visit the Oklahoma City Temple and attend a session. We will then enjoy an afternoon drive into the Dallas area (about 3.5 hours away) arriving in the late afternoon. After resting at the hotel and getting a bite to eat, we'll drive a couple of minutes over to the beautiful Dallas Temple and enjoy an evening temple session. B

May 16: Today is a relaxing day. We'll start with a visit to the Fort Worth Botanic Garden. This is an "oasis in the city" with a large variety of plants, nature trails and places to sit and relax. We'll spend an hour soaking in the natural beauty. We'll then drive toward San Antonio stopping for lunch in Waco which is about half way. We'll then continue south arriving in San Antonio in the late afternoon. We will check into our hotel on the famous Riverwalk (for two nights) where we'll have the evening to explore this unique urban masterpiece. We'll enjoy dinner tonight on the most famous restaurant on the river: Casa Rio. This sits on land first granted by the king of Spain in 1777. You'll love the cedar doors, window lintels, fireplace and thick rock walls. After dinner you'll have time on your own to wander the lovely paths along the river B, D

May 17: After breakfast today, we'll drive out to the beautiful San Antonio Temple and enjoy a session. We'll then return to the hotel, change and enjoy lunch at the famous El Mercado, with various shops and restaurants. In the afternoon, we'll see an extraordinary IMAX film entitled Alamo... The Price of Freedom where we'll learn of the interesting struggle for Texas independence. We'll then walk down the block and visit the Alamo where we'll have a guided walking tour of the grounds. It is fascinating history and an interesting place to visit in the heart of the city. After a rest at the hotel, we'll enjoy a 40 minute narrated boat ride on the San Antonio River, which is shaded by towering cypress, oak, and willow trees, and is bordered by gardens of flowering ornamental plants. You are then free for the evening to enjoy dinner on your own along the beautiful river. B

May 18: We continue our journey today enjoying a morning drive into Houston (about 3.5 hours away) where we'll enjoy an afternoon session in the Houston Temple, in a lovely suburb. Our hotel is close by. After checking in and resting, we'll enjoy dinner as a group this evening. B, D

May 19: Today is Saturday. After breakfast, we continue through eastern Texas into Louisiana arriving in the early afternoon. Our destination is Baton Rouge where we'll enjoy a late afternoon session in the temple. From there, it is just an hour into New Orleans where we will spend two nights. Welcome to the Big Easy! We'll relax around our hotel tonight. B

May 20: Today is Sunday. We'll attend Sacrament Meeting at 9:00 AM at a nearby meetinghouse. We'll then change our clothing and enjoy lunch in the French Quarter area (on your own). This afternoon, a guide will join us and show several unique sites of the city including the French Quarter, Jackson Square, Lake Pontchartrain, the fascinating cemetery (you'll see) and much more. After a rest at the hotel, we'll return to the French Quarter where we'll enjoy dinner together at one of the quarter's lovely restaurants. B, D

May 21: After breakfast, we'll enjoy a combination of activities that we know you'll enjoy. We'll drive out to the Bayou and board our boat for an interesting Swamp Tour. Keep your hands and arms inside as we'll be seeing alligators and other reptiles as well as some very interesting natural beauty. As part of our Swamp Tour, we'll be visiting an elegant southern plantation showcasing life of previous centuries. We will then board our bus and drive in a northeast direction through central Mississippi and into Birmingham, Alabama, arriving in the early evening. There are restaurants by our hotel and you'll be on your own for dinner. B

May 22: After breakfast, we'll enjoy a morning session in the Birmingham Temple. We'll then change, check out of the hotel and drive into the Atlanta area (just two hours away), arriving in the early afternoon. We'll go straight to Stone Mountain which is one of the most interesting places to see in all of the south. Here, just outside of Atlanta, is one of the largest exposed masses of granite in the world. On it is a carving of the Confederate Memorial (with Robert E. Lee and other southern leaders). It is known as the Mt. Rushmore of the south, and is worth seeing. Our hotel is just a few minutes away in the town of Stone Mountain, Georgia. B, D

May 23: Today is our final day and our chance to attend our 7th temple session of the trip, this time in the Atlanta Temple. From the temple, we'll go directly downtown and enjoy free time and lunch in the famous Atlanta Underground. We'll spend a couple of hours there as there is much to see and do. If you are interested, you can visit Coca Cola World which is fascinating as well as nostalgic. It is amazing how you can relive history through the ad campaigns of a product that is a part of our culture. From there, we'll drive to the airport for our early evening flight home. B

Note: If you wish to participate in sessions at the different temples, you will need to bring your own temple clothing. If you bring them in their own case, we will store them under the bus in a separate bin so that it is easy to get to them each time we arrive at one of the temples. Several of these temples (like Baton Rouge, Birmingham and Oklahoma City) don't have clothing for rent.

Registration Information:

To make a reservation, simply fill out the attached reservation form and send it to us with a deposit of $300 per person. When we receive your deposit, we will mail you a receipt confirming that you are registered for the tour. A letter with instructions, hotel itinerary flight information (if applicable) and luggage tags will be sent 45-60 days prior to departure at which time the balance will be due. You do not need to pay the balance until after you receive that packet. We require final payments in the form of a check. If that is not possible, arrangements can be made to use a credit card. Webb Tours accepts Visa, Mastercard and Discover.

Cancellation Penalties

We understand that you may need to cancel your trip for whatever reason. If it is 60 days or more before departure, all money will be refunded. If it is within 60 days, we will charge you only what Webb Tours cannot recover. In some cases, we can recover all of it. In others, we cannot. Cruise lines, airlines, hotels and other service providers require funds in advance and have their own rules about what will be refunded once paid. We must follow their guidelines. For airlines, specifically, tickets are generally non refundable when purchased. However, most airlines will allow the value of the canceled tickets to be reused for future travel, though a penalty may be assessed to reuse the tickets. If you have to cancel, Webb Tours will work with other providers to obtain as much refund as possible for our travelers. Our travelers know us to be very fair in this regard.

Cancellation Insurance:

Cancellation insurance is also available should you be interested. The insurance provider that we use is a company called Travelex. You can learn about them at www.travelexinsurance.com. With this insurance, most of your money will be returned to you in case you have to cancel for covered reasons (illness or death of an immediate family member) at the last minute. The price for the insurance varies based on the price of the trip and the age of the participant (at the time the insurance is purchased). Prices are as follows:

Trip Cost	Ages 0-34	Ages 35-59	Ages 60-69	Ages 70-79	Ages 80+
$1,000-$1,500	$68	$85	$111	$165	$255

However, insurance may be purchased any time up to the point you make your final payment. Insurance cannot be purchased after your final payment is made. Webb Tours is not the insurer and acts as agent for Travelex. To activate your insurance, we need your premium and your birth date. Insurance also includes $50,000 in medical benefits, $1,000 for lost baggage, $250 for baggage delay and $50,000 for Common Carrier AD&D.
